The Eugenides Foundation has informed participants through all available means, but also repeats through this present notification that it is forbidden to videotape or take pictures during the workshop. Notwithstanding the above prohibition, in the case of video recording and/or taking of photographs and/or posting from the workshop by a third party, the Eugenides Foundation bears no responsibility. It is the responsibility of the parents or guardians to complete and deliver participation applications to the Eugenides Foundation at least five (5) days prior to the day of the workshop. It is not possible to participate in a workshop unless this application is completed and delivered. Applications will be retained in the Foundation's records as proof of the fulfilment of its purpose whenever requested by the competent authorities, as well as for statistical purposes. However, in the case of statistical surveys, no personal data that would identify participants will be disclosed. The accuracy of data submitted to the Foundation is the responsibility of the person making the application, and the Eugenides Foundation bears no responsibility for data accuracy.

I have been informed, understand and accept that, in compliance to the terms of current legislation for the protection of individuals from unlawful processing of their personal data, the Eugenides Foundation maintains on file and processes personal data contained in this application as per my explicit consent for both my own details and those of the minor I represent, as well as any other information that may be provided with respect to the minor's participation in the aforementioned workshop.

The Eugenides Foundation does not share personal data; however, I acknowledge that in the context of fulfilling its purpose or its legal obligations and if so required the Eugenides Foundation may share information that may contain personal data with competent authorities and institutions, academics or other advisers.

I fully understand my rights that derive from legislation on the protection of personal data (access, rectification, erasure, objection, portability, etc.), as well as my right to be informed and request explanations for their processing, in accordance with the provisions of the law, by addressing queries to Eugenides Foundation (387 Syngrou Avenue, Paleo Faliro, 175 64) or by email to info@eef.edu.gr. The Eugenides Foundation will do its utmost to satisfy your request and inform you in writing of its progress.
